

WOMEN WRITERS - SHORT COURSE 2027

TOPIC: British Women Writers of the 1940s

This course will run on Mondays

3.45pm to 5.30pm

from 1st February 2027 at Norton House

The course will cover 6 different women writers. Each session will include a presentation about the biography of the chosen novelist and one of their novels, followed by discussion on that novel.

1 st February	Josephine Tey	"Bratt Farrar"
8 th February	Dorothy Whipple	"They Were Sisters"
15 th February	Nancy Mitford	"The Pursuit of Love"
22 nd February	Phyllis Bottome	"The Lifeline"
1 st March	Mollie Panter-Downes	"One Fine Day"
8 th March	Agatha Christie	"Death Comes as the End"
15 th March	Bring your own book choice to share

Copies of the books are either in the library or spare copies may be available from the group. Some also have audio versions or have been made into BBC dramas or films. Most are in print and available to buy from Leek Book Shop.

If you are interested in joining the group please get in touch with:

Jill Norman 07854 167793 or email

jillandroy@btinternet.com